Association Offers Lot For Sale

Greentrees Village has come into possession of a lot in the village due to delinquent assessments. The Board of Directors wish to give Greentrees owners and residents the first opportunity to purchase the property.

The lot is number 105. Please review the insert in this newsletter for more details about the lot and how you can bid on it if you are interested.

The City's Multi-Use Path Plan

The City of Florence's plan for a multi-use path that runs adjacent to Rhododendron Drive from Wildwinds to 9th Street is expected to be available for public review in mid-May.

As envisioned, the path will be separated from Rhododendron Drive by approximately three feet. The path itself will be ten feet wide, made of asphalt and run the entire length of Greentrees Village East.

The Greentrees Board of Directors is concerned about the loss of native vegetation on Rhody Drive and intends to study the plan as soon as it is available from the City in order to see how the path will affect the Association. The current schedule would call for construction to begin in June of 2015.

Phone Books

New Eugene/Springfield phone books are available in the Clubhouse for any resident who wishes to pick one up. The Association has the vendors bring them to the Clubhouse so they are not distributed to unoccupied houses. The Board does not want to mark houses as empty for possible thieves.

City Survey

Inserted inside this newsletter is a City of Florence Street Survey. The survey went to residents of Florence in their utility bill. When Greentrees protested that our residents' opinions would not be heard because Greentrees residents do not receive utility bills, The City provided the surveys for our newsletter. Greentrees Village residents will need to drop their completed surveys off at city hall or mail them to: Florence Survey - City Hall, 250 Hwy 101, Florence OR 97439. It is a good idea to take the time to let your voice be heard.

Art Display Cabinets

Greentrees Village is looking for residents who would like to display their art & craft items, or collectibles, in the Association's new art display cases located in the Clubhouse. The new cases were partly funded by the Tuesday Club. They are locked, and protected by 24 hour video monitoring.

Items will be on exhibit for 30 days and may consist of up to 40 pieces, depending on size. Exhibits can be one-person shows, or they can be group showings of two or more artists. All pieces, of course, must be able to fit into the display cases, but the shelves are adjustable and can be removed for larger items. We will not display articles that are morally objectionable or politically partisan. The Art Display Committee reserves the right to make final decisions about the items to be exhibited.

To help us make our selections, we request that you fill out an application in the office and provide three photographs representative of the items you wish to show.

Here we are in May. Time certainly flies. The saying “April showers bring May Flowers”, oh, and bears too. Those cute, lovable bears.

CAUTION! Bears are dangerous! When we feed them they are no longer fearful of us and can inflict damage to property and to us. Bears stop being “cute” when they climb through our windows and look for food. A bedroom door is not going to slow down a 300lb bear looking for food.

We have had a bear break into one of our resident’s home. That bear, in all probability, will repeat that intrusion and is teaching her cubs to do likewise. This sets a dangerous precedence. When a bear breaks into one’s home, the police need to be notified. If a bear is startled while in your home, your life could be in danger. By contacting the police to report the bear intrusion (hopefully after it has left), you may be saving the life of your neighbor.

We all love our wildlife. Their lives are precious, and it is a delight to observe their young this time of the year. Lets keep our community safe for the wildlife and us.

“SMOKIE SAYS - DON’T FEED ME. I GET MAD WHEN YOU STOP!”

The Computer Club by Pat Miller

We’re past the end-of-support date for XP and Office 2003. My two previous articles gave some insight into what was coming and things you should consider. I’d like to take a little more newsletter space this month to talk to those continuing with XP.

Just how effective anti-virus, anti-malware, and anti-spyware will be, we don’t know. But you should continue to run these security programs. And you should not use Internet Explorer 8 (the latest version that could run in XP) for your browser, as it also is no longer supported; try Firefox or Chrome instead.

As previously reported, for XP only, Microsoft Security Essentials (MSE) would be changing and it has. It no longer serves as anti-virus protection; it is now anti-malware only. You should have seen changes to MSE, such as the icon in the taskbar being red. Check out this link http://answers.microsoft.com/en-us/protect/wiki/mse-protect_start/microsoft-security-essentials-452160-on-windows-xp/1328d67a-5720- 4481-8662-e52a49a11a22 for an explanation. As stated in the article, you may want to just uninstall MSE. This action is also recommended by many reputable tech sites as MSE is now anti-malware only.

So, you need a good anti-virus (try avast! or AVG). A must-have is Malwarebytes Anti-Malware. If you aren’t currently using this program, install it immediately. You’ll also need an anti-spyware program—try SUPER-AntiSpyware. These programs all have free editions.

May class schedule. Come join us.

What To Do If You See A Bear

If you live in Florence, you may never see a bear. Even so, there are many places in the Florence community and surrounding areas where frequent bear sightings occur. If you observe one of these extraordinary animals, notify the Florence Police Department. If you live outside the City, notify the Lane County Sheriff’s Office or Oregon State Police.

If you see a bear, what you should do depends on the situation. If a bear approaches you or poses a threat to you or animals you own, act immediately to scare it away. Make as much noise as possible by yelling loudly. Don’t worry about waking people in the neighborhood if it’s nighttime. If you are with other people, stand together to present a more intimidating figure, but do not surround the bear.

If you frequently have bear sightings, carrying bear or pepper spray may be a safety alternative if the animal gets close. Keep your distance (at least 50 yards) so you do not help the bear become used to being around people. The intent is not to harm the bear, but rather scare it from the area and restore its natural fear of people by creating a negative experience. Bears that become comfortable around people lose their natural fear of us and sometimes become too aggressive; when they become comfortable enough around people that it leads to aggression, they either need to be relocated or killed.

The Tuesday Club by Norma Burkett

Dear active members of the Tuesday Club, I am resigning as President of the Tuesday Club as of May 13, 2014.

I would like to thank all of you who have supported me in the last few months by volunteering at our events, serving as officers, organizing the Tuesday Luncheons, Social Mornings, baking and serving cake at the board meetings, doing the monthly decorating of the Recreation Hall, organizing Bunco and simply taking the time to attend the monthly meetings. Thanks to all the Greentrees staff who were always most helpful and free with help, advice and muscle.

It has been a pleasure to serve as your Tuesday Club president, but I feel I can no longer do so. I am sure there is someone amongst our 567 homes who would love to do the job of president in the way it has always been done in the past; who can also meet the expectations of the residents of Greentrees. I, unfortunately, find I cannot.

Thank you all again for the opportunity to introduce some of my ideas to the community, and perhaps some of them will be tried again in the future. They were really fun.

Since I must get my news in before deadline, I can only tell you that the tables are selling well for the Antiques and Collectibles Sale, and that we have a few volunteers signed up to make muffins to sell there. Hopefully more volunteers will turn up to help with the security, set-up for the sale and coffee and muffin sale.

All the other functions of the Tuesday Club are going very well thanks to the efforts of their organizers. Betty, Debbie W., Dolores and Debbie G. have done a wonderful job so far this year. Peg and Carol have made the Recreation Hall a treat with their décor. We're grateful to all of you for your gifts of time.

This month, Della Alt will be teaching a beaded bracelet class on May 20th at 1 PM. Signup in the Clubhouse. Luncheon out is at the Beachcomber on the 27th. Signup for a "beachy" time. Sign-up sheets are out for Bunco too.

May 13th, please attend the regular monthly meeting with your nominations for President of the Club. The election will take place at the meeting, so the year can continue smoothly. I urge everyone who enjoys the efforts and events of this valuable group to come to nominate and elect a new president. The Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer are most happy to continue in their present positions, so the new president will have these amazing ladies supporting her or him the way they have steadfastly been there for me. Perhaps a new president can inspire volunteers to take on chairing events, and can inspire more residents to volunteer.

On Mother's Day there will be a lovely concert. And if the new president wants to add an Afternoon Tea also, perhaps someone will chair it and lots of someones will volunteer to help. We had a nice hat decorating afternoon with just three of us in the Tuesday Room - a good visit and some very happy hats to show for our efforts.

It's Spring! So let's all get out in our gardens and make Greentrees more beautiful, grow veggies and just enjoy getting our hands dirty.

| EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS EXPO HOSTED BY GREENTREES VILLAGE |  |

Get Ready - It's Coming!

Mark your calendar. On September 13th plan for a full day of activities as Greentrees hosts the Emergency Preparedness Expo at our Recreation Hall. There will be informational booths, vendors, lectures, demos, movies, door prizes, and free food.

This is the best source of information to help you get ready for a major emergency event. We are not immune to the possibility of a major catastrophe in our little village. Look at the number of major earthquakes that have occurred in the past few years along the ring of fire that includes our coastline (Sri Lanka, Japan, and Chile). Look at the past destruction by high winds in our area. Look at the chance of a major fire started along Rhododendron Drive with the large amount of dead undergrowth throughout our community. Look at the unusual effects of climate change that are being felt worldwide.

So maybe we should be prepared for these major events as well as just be ready to help ourselves to be safe and healthy in times of crisis. Come, learn, and be prepared.

The Florence Senior Center by Faye Walters

The Florence Senior Center has great things happening every day. While on one of our many visits to Florence over the years we had occasion to visit the original center. What a surprise when we moved to Greentrees and found the new center so close, and on the bus route too! The beautiful building design, the interior décor and colors are just wonderful. Everything is so clean and fresh.

On our first visit we felt so welcomed by the greeter, we now look forward to saying 'Hi' each time we get there. We have become regular visitors and tell everyone we meet about the center. We sometimes eat breakfast or lunch with other Greentrees residents who love the center. We've also joined the Friendship Group, who play Hand and Foot there twice a month.

There is now a monthly Activities Sheet posted on the Community Bulletin Board in the Greentrees Clubhouse. Also a Tuesday and Thursday lunch menu (cooked on site), a Monday, Wednesday and Friday Meals on Wheels menu (made in Eugene and brought here), and a 3rd Friday of the month breakfast reminder.

For those of you who would like to go to breakfast but don't want to call for a separate reservation, there is a sign-up sheet in the Clubhouse. Jim and Faye Walters will collect the sheet on the 3rd Thursday of each month to make the reservations at the Center. If you leave your phone number, they will give you a reminder call.

We hope to see more of you at the Senior Center, and check out our bulletin board for all the activities going on there.

Scotch Broom is Beautiful, but Noxious

It is that time of year again when we begin to see Scotch Broom growing throughout Florence. If you see the yellow blooms appearing on your property, it's important that you remove it – roots and all.

The Scotch Broom shrub has become an invasive species throughout the Pacific Northwest, where it competes with native plants, and forms dense stands that are difficult to manage and remove.

Scotch Broom was introduced from Europe as a garden ornamental by early settlers of the Pacific Coast. Its invasive habit and economic costs have landed Scotch broom on the State Weed Board's list of noxious weeds. Its seed can survive in the soil for up to fifty years. So pull it out as soon as you can identify it.

Florence Rhody Days are Coming

The 107th Florence Rhododendron Festival is on the weekend of May 16th through the 18th. It is the second-oldest flower festival in Oregon and third oldest on the West Coast. It's just one year younger than the Portland Rose Festival. The oldest flower festival on the West Coast is the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, California.

The Rhododendron festival celebrates the wild rhododendrons that thrive along the Oregon Coast and officially begins with the Rhody Showcase to crown "Queen Rhododendra and King of the Coast". The festival has a wide variety of events throughout the weekend including a parade, a flower show spotlighting rhododendron specimens grown by coastal inhabitants, a car show, an arts and craft fair, a 5K run, a carnival and much, more.

This year's theme is "Not Our First Rhody-O!"

Camera Installed

You may notice the new signs posted on the doors coming into the Clubhouse which state that video surveillance is in use on the premises.

A new wide-angle camera was installed in the Library room to keep an eye on the new art display cabinets, and to watch who is coming in and out of the main entrance.

The camera records every time it senses movement and stores the recording in cloud storage. The recordings can be retrieved at any time using a computer. The new technology has become very affordable and the Board felt that if we are going to display art and collectibles in the Library, we had better have surveillance on the display cabinets.

New Recycle Bin in Clubhouse

There is a new recycle bin in the Clubhouse for you to recycle laser printer ink cartridges, inkjet cartridges, cell phones and small electronics (like GPS units). The bin is located next to the pill bottle recycle bin in the Atrium by the ping pong table.

The recycle program is being sponsored by the Siuslaw Genealogical Society, a local group who promote and aid researchers interested in genealogy and local history. Resident Shirley Kaasa is Secretary of the Society. All proceeds from the recycle program will go to aid the work of the Genealogical Society
